

Want to learn how to make change in the community?

Want to build your leadership skills?

Want to network with other committed parents from around Greater Rochester?

The Greater Rochester Parent Leadership Training Institute (PLTI) partners with committed parents to lead change in their neighborhoods, schools, and communities. We are now accepting applications for our Fall 2016 class.

Join us for a Parent Information Session

Tuesday, August 9th @ 5:30 pm

Dinner and Child Care Provided

Rochester Central Library*

Bausch and Lomb Building, Gleason Auditorium

Please RSVP to GreaterRochesterPLTI@gmail.com

What will I do in PLTI?

- Define community problems
- Learn public speaking skills
- Become familiar with local, state, and federal law and budgets
- Create your own community project, based on your interests and concerns

Who will be in PLTI?

- Parents and others who care about children – including aunts and uncles, grandparents, and foster parents
- All ages, income levels, education levels, races and ethnicities

When and How?

- 1 day Saturday retreat & 20 weeks of Monday evening classes from November 2016 to May 2017
- High quality curriculum at no cost to participants
- Child care & Children's Leadership Institute for ages 3-13
- Dinner provided each week
- Transportation available as needed

#WeArePLTI

Creating necessary change for children in our community

*Validated parking available in the Court Street Garage. Assistance with transportation available if needed.